Janmashtami Celebration

The Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application (MCA, MBA, and IMSc.IT) hosted a vibrant Janmashtami celebration on the 28th of August, 2024. The event was marked by a series of exciting activities that captured the spirit of the festival and brought together students and faculty in a joyful atmosphere.

Matki Decoration Competition **:

The festivities began at 9:40 am with a Matki Decoration Competition, which saw enthusiastic participation from the students of MBA, MCA, and IMSc.IT. The students showcased their creativity and artistic skills, crafting beautifully decorated matkis that reflected the traditional essence of Janmashtami. The competition was judged by esteemed faculty members from BVPIT, Prof. Payal A. Joshi and Prof. Jignesh Makwana, who had the challenging task of selecting the best entries. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where the winners were recognized and rewarded for their efforts.

Dahi Handi Celebration **:

Following the Matki Decoration Competition, the celebrations continued with the Dahi Handi event, which began at 1:30 pm. The event started with the Aarti of Lord Krishna, creating a spiritual ambiance, followed by the distribution of prasad to all the participants and attendees. The highlight of the event was the breaking of Dahi Handis, a traditional activity symbolizing the playful spirit of Lord Krishna. Students from the IMSc.IT branch dressed up as Krishna and Radha, adding to the festive atmosphere. With great enthusiasm and teamwork, students from the MBA, MCA, and IMSc.IT programs successfully broke nearly 10 Dahi Handis, cheered on by their peers

Conclusion :

The celebration concluded with a traditional Garba dance, where students and faculty members joined together to dance and celebrate the occasion in true cultural spirit. The event, which wrapped up around 4:00 pm, was a resounding success, filled with joy, devotion, and camaraderie. It served not only as a tribute to the festival of Janmashtami but also as a means of fostering unity and cultural appreciation among the students.
