Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application, Umrakh

Navratri Celebration

In Gujarat, Navratri is a festival as well as community event, where people perform Garba on devotional songs which are popular by the names of Dandiya Raas and Garba Raas.

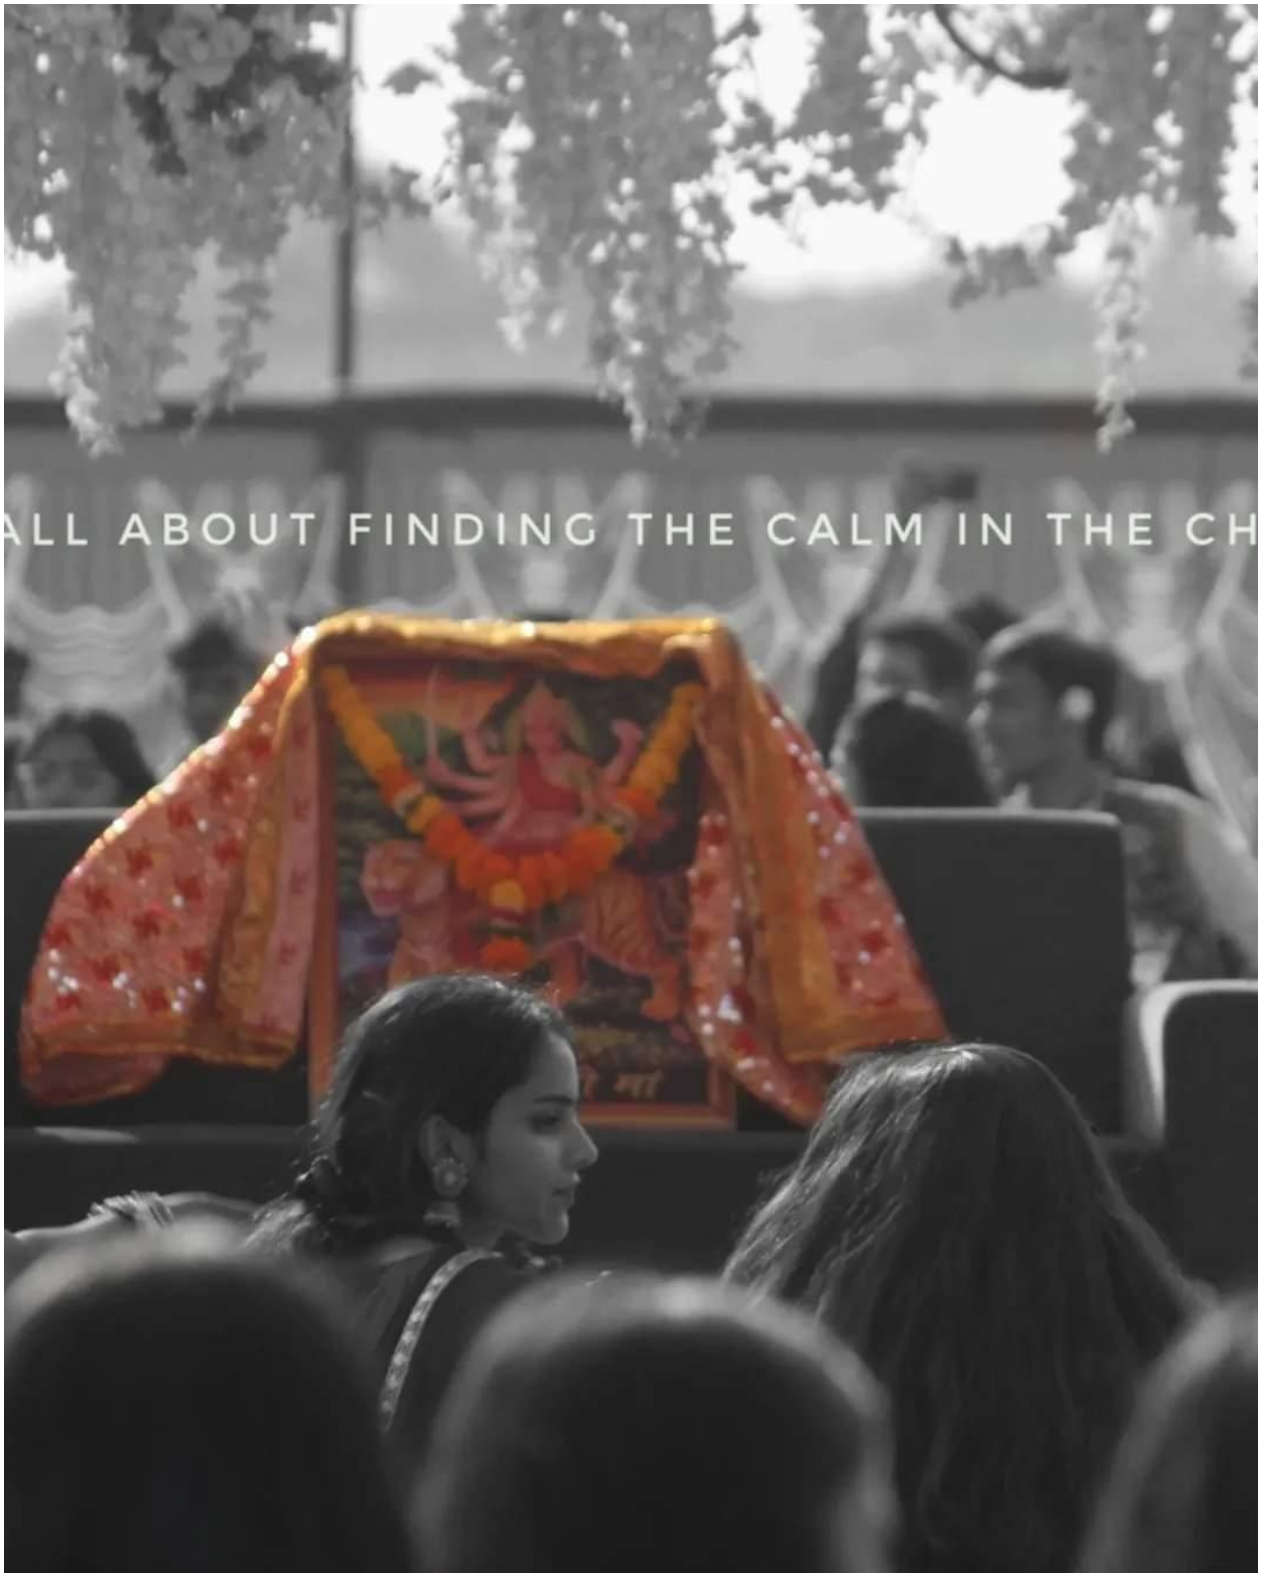

Continuing this tradition, Vidyabharti Trust, Umarakh has organized "Garba Evening" on 23rd October 2023, Monday from 1:45 PM to 6:00 PM for the students, teaching, and non-teaching staff at College Cricket Ground.

The celebration started by offering prayer to Goddess Navdurga. All the students and staff members of VBT MCA were invited to attend the prayer. After which, Many of students performed a graceful Talwar Aarti performance and gave a perfect start to this event.

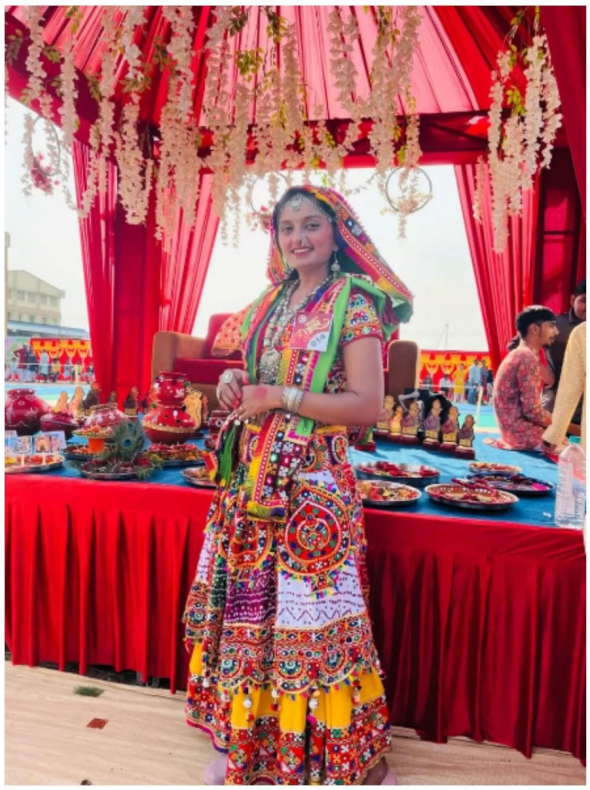

Around 2:30 pm; all the students and staff gathered at VBT cricket ground and enjoyed the Garba Raas and also held the prize distribution for best garba performer. The event ended by 6 pm.

All students and staff have enthusiastically participated in this devotional event. The discipline and planning of the event were highly appreciable.

Glimpse of the Day:

Sponsored by

