Report on 'Leadership' Seminar

The seminar on Leadership, featuring renowned speakers Divyasukta Das and Nilachala Narayana Das from ISKCON, was a transformative event that left an indelible impact on the audience. Held at Sitarambhai Naranji Patel Institute of Technology and Research Centre Auditorium on Wednesday, 28th February 2024, above 300 students with faculties attended the seminar. It aimed to inspire and guide students on the path of effective and ethical leadership.

The seminar began with a warm welcome to the distinguished speakers, Divyasukta Das and Nilachala Narayana Das. The event was inaugurated with an invocation, setting a spiritually charged atmosphere for the discussions on leadership principles.

Keynote Address by Divyasukta Das:

Divyasukta Das, an eminent speaker and spiritual leader, delivered a keynote address that seamlessly blended spiritual wisdom with practical leadership insights. He emphasized the importance of leading with integrity, compassion, and a sense of purpose. Drawing from timeless philosophies, Divyasukta Das shared anecdotes and analogies that resonated with the audience, providing a holistic perspective on leadership.

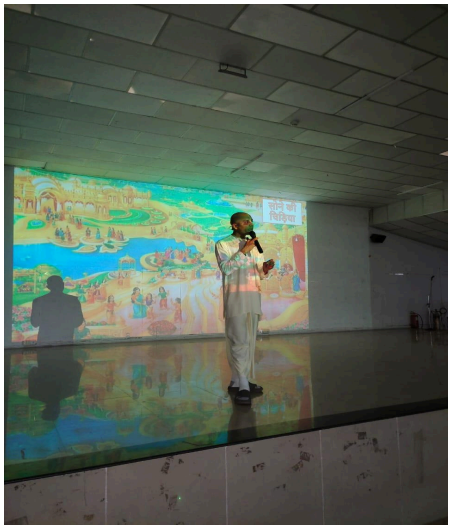

Interactive Session with Nilachala Narayana Das:

Nilachala Narayana Das, another luminary from ISCON, conducted an engaging interactive session. He focused on the practical application of spiritual principles in leadership roles. Participants had the opportunity to ask questions, seek advice, and discuss real-world challenges they face as emerging leaders.

Divyasukta Das elaborated on the concept of servant leadership, emphasizing that true leaders serve those they lead. By cultivating a selfless attitude and considering the well-being of others, leaders can create a positive and empowering work environment. The speakers discussed the importance of ethics in leadership and how ethical decision-making contributes to the long-term success and sustainability of an organization. Practical examples were shared to illustrate the impact of ethical leadership on both individuals and the collective.

Nilachala Narayana Das guided participants through mindful leadership practices, encouraging them to cultivate self-awareness and emotional intelligence. Mindfulness, he asserted, is a crucial component of effective leadership, allowing leaders to navigate challenges with clarity and composure.

Conclusion:

The seminar on Leadership by Divyasukta Das and Nilachala Narayana Das was a resounding success, leaving participants inspired and equipped with a profound understanding of leadership principles. The event not only provided valuable insights into the spiritual dimensions of leadership but also offered practical guidance for applying these principles in the dynamic world of business and technology.

The Vidyabharti Trust extends heartfelt gratitude to Divyasukta Das and Nilachala Narayana Das for their enlightening contributions to the seminar. The impact of this event is expected to resonate in the hearts and minds of the attendees as they embark on their leadership journeys.
