Report on Satyanarayana Katha

On the auspicious occasion of the one-year completion of the Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application (MCA, MBA, IMScI) new building, a Satyanarayana Katha was organized on Saturday, 17th August 2024. The event commenced at 10:30 AM with a serene and pious atmosphere, attracting members from various departments of Vidyabharti Trust.

The Katha, a sacred Hindu ritual that involves the worship of Lord Satyanarayana, was led by Prof. Pratik Chauhan from the MBA department. Prof. Pratik Chauhan performed all the necessary rituals and pooja with devotion and precision, creating an atmosphere of reverence and peace. The katha continued for nearly two hours and concluded gracefully at 12:15 PM.

Distinguished principals from different colleges under the Vidyabharti Trust were invited as honored guests. Their presence added to the grandeur of the occasion, and their participation reflected the unity and collaborative spirit within the institution.

After the conclusion of the katha, all the staff gathered for a lunch, further fostering a sense of community and togetherness among the faculty and staff. The event was not only a spiritual experience but also a celebration of the progress and growth of VBTMCA, as it marked the completion of its first year in the new building.
